

ON THE INNER PLANES, SOMETHING IS STIRRING WITHIN US –
CALLING OUT FROM OUR VERY SOULS

From time immemorial, spirit seekers of every civilization and age have journeyed in pilgrimage to sacred sites at the far corners of our world in worship: to speak to the gods, to know the power of Spirit, to achieve enlightenment.

The search is one of inner growth. It is a deep, sometimes burning desire to know the powerful transformational energies of holy places, temples of the ancients – some remaining, some scattered in the winds of time – and to connect with Gaia's most powerful energy vortices.

It is a calling – an act of love, determination and devotion. It presents the opportunity for true initiation.

Such experiences are not without risk. They are often filled with challenges, calling the initiate to honor. And, guided by the true teachers of the Wisdom, they can be the most life-altering moments of our lives....

A journey of initiation is a new beginning, just as it is a returning to what you have always known.

Despite appearances, this is a time of incredible light emerging. Will you give yourself this gift, taking the giant leaps your soul yearns for?

Join Patricia Cori, teacher, author and shamanic guide, for an unforgettable journey to the power places of this great earth.
